

300-Foot Cavein Along River Levee Stirs Excitement

ALEXANDRIA, La., May 10 (AP)—Excitement among flood-weary residents along the Red River flared briefly today when a 300-foot wash occurred at Brouillette.

Officials said a wash is similar to a minor cavein, as distinguished from a break, and was not serious.

Slash River Flow

Meanwhile, the engineers said in Washington immediate reduction in the amount of water released from Denison Dam, upstream in Texas, has been ordered to ease some of the danger of overflow in Louisiana.

The engineers notified Sens. Ellender and Long, Louisiana Democrats, that the water release would be cut 10,000 cubic feet a second immediately. The senators had requested such action.

May Gen. E. C. Ischner, Chief of Engineers, said the release would be held to slightly under 40,000 cubic feet a second for the next four days.

To Drop Level

Long and Ellender said the action would permit a drop in the stream in the vicinity of Natchitoches and elsewhere.

The Red crest has passed Shreveport and Natchitoches, the senators said, but water has remained high and has placed a strain on temporary levees.

Engineers said a reduction in releases from Denison was expected to ease the situation in about one week.

Rep. Brooks (D-La.) asked the Agriculture Department to declare the flooded area a disaster area to make residents eligible for emergency loans.

No Penalty

The department advised Brooks there would be no penalty in event cattle are moved temporarily from flooded lowland pastures to higher ground pastures in the soil bank reserve.

At Brouillette, in Avoyelles Parish about 10 miles from Marksville, some 30 workers began placing sandbags around the wash. Engineers said it was expected to be closed in a few days.

Fee Not Announced

The amount of the planner's fee was not announced, but it has been learned that the City Council is awaiting the decision of the Police Jury before filing for federal aid in conducting the survey.

Mayor J. Allen Norris of West Monroe announced Thursday that the City of West Monroe had filed an application for federal aid. He said a contract with Martin had been signed.

Howard requested in a public meeting here Wednesday that the State Department of Highways delay its final decision on the route of the highway until a city survey could be conducted.

Funds For New Health Center Will Be Sought

Rep. Lawrence Gibbs said last night that a legislative bill to be introduced in the Louisiana Legislature Monday calling for $400,000 for health department funds would include $24,700 for a new Ouachita Parish Health Unit center.

Gibbs expressed hope for getting the bill passed and said that once it reached the floor of the House it would snowball to the governor's desk.

$400,000 Measure

The $400,000 bill calls for funds to be taken from the general fund and appropriated for the Louisiana State Board of Health to be matched with federal and local funds.

It would be used for the constructing and equipping of public health centers, including administrative offices, laboratories and clinics, Gibbs explained.

Several Northeast Louisiana parishes have filed applications asking for health unit assistance, including Concordia, Franklin, Tangipahoa, Caldwell, Catahoula and Ouachita.

Gibbs said that provided the bill passed, the new Ouachita Health Unit center would cost an estimated $360,000. He explained that the bill would call for federal aid of $65,340 and that the Ouachita Health Unit's share would be $51,960.

The 30-day legislative session opening Monday at the state capitol will also include a bill asking for an increase of the appropriation for the Northeast Area.

NAMED NEW GOVERNOR OF ALASKA—Michael Stepovich poses with a small totem pole yesterday after he was nominated by President Eisenhower to be governor of Alaska. Stepovich, a 38-year-old Republican, now is a member of the Alaska territorial senate and has been named to succeed B. Frank Heintzleman who resigned as governor earlier this year. His nomination which is subject to Senate confirmation, is for a four-year term at $19,000 a year. (AP Wirephoto)

RICHARDS REPORTS

Mid-East Aware U.S. Can Win War

WASHINGTON, May 10 (UP)—Ambassador James P. Richards said today the Middle East nations he toured to sell the Eisenhower Doctrine are now "conscious we will whip Russia if we get into a war."

Richards also said he committed about 120 million dollars in military and economic aid during his 59-day, 25,000-mile tour of 15 Middle East countries as President Eisenhower's special envoy.

He declined to give a news conference any specific breakdown on how much money will go to what countries. He said the greater part of the money was provided in the form of grants rather than loans. He added that he committed "a little more economic than military aid."

200-Million Authorized

Richards, a South Carolina Democrat and former chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, was authorized to offer up to 200 million dollars under the doctrine aid fund.

He said he still could spend the remaining 80 million dollars before the legislative deadline June 30. But he said he does not expect to return to the Middle East in his role as presidential envoy.

Richards said he explained at every stop on his trip that the United States knows it would be the "first enemy attacked from the skies" in case of war.

He said he also stressed to Middle East leaders that the military potential of the United States is of great value to other countries.

President Says GOP Is Now In 'Dixie To Stay'

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10 (UP)—President Eisenhower, speaking by long-distance telephone, told Republican leaders today the Democrats have lost control of the "Solid South" and the GOP is in Dixie to stay.

Citing "impressive increases" in GOP strength in the South in the last 20 years, Eisenhower called for a political offensive to recapture control of Congress next year.

Over Amplifier

His remarks were brought through an amplifier to party leaders from 12 Southern and border states attending a regional conference whose theme is "Concentrate on '58.'" The meeting is the fourth in a nationwide series.

Eisenhower said the party's weakness in the South has been that Republicans failed to nominate candidates in many races. Even in 1956, he pointed out, there were no GOP candidates in 65 of the 114 congressional districts in Southern and border states.

None Hopeless

"If we work long enough and hard enough, there can be no such thing as a hopeless state or a hopeless district," the President said. "We ought to have a candidate in every one."

The President also spoke out again in defense of the $71,800,000 federal budget which he said was "not recklessly or carelessly thrown together."

He added the price of peace comes high, and the price of maintaining the peace comes high—that the cost "is inconsequential when compared with the price of war."

Turning again to the political scene, Eisenhower said in every presidential election since 1940, the Republicans have increased their percentage of the South's total vote.

Cloudy Weather Seen For Today

The Twin Cities and Arkansas can expect a cloudy Saturday, with scattered showers this afternoon and Sunday. The temperatures will stay mild, and for those who enjoy rain, this will be a fine weekend.

WITNESS SAYS:

Beck Took Memorial Fund Profit

WASHINGTON, May 10 (UP)—Teamsters President Dave Beck and an associate made a quick $11,585 profit by selling a bloc of mortgages to a memorial fund for the widow of Beck's best friend, Senate investigators were told today.

Beck was the trustee of the fund which originally was established by the Teamsters to take care of the widow of Raymond Lohney, a Los Angeles Teamster official described as Beck's "dearest friend."

The complex transaction was described to the Senate Labor Rackets Committee by Donal Hedlund, who was Beck's partner in this and other real estate ventures. Subcommittee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said Beck profited by more than $26,600 in his real estate deals with Hedlund.

Brokerage Fees

Hedlund also conceded that he and Beck received brokerage fees for handling the investment of millions of dollars of Teamster funds. In 1954 alone, he said, these fees amounted to $4,308 for each of the two men.

He said Beck also received a $2,500 brokerage fee in a Teamsters Union purchase of a bloc of mortgages in Detroit.

Kennedy cited the brokerage fees and the widow's fund in charging later that Beck and his family profited in four ways from the investment of nine million in Teamster funds.

He also cited the interest of the nephew of Beck's wife in a company which received service fees for purchasing mortgages for the Teamsters and Beck's quick profits from land sales to a construction company.

Violate Duties

Kennedy said Beck's deals appear to violate his legal duties as the trustee of the Teamster funds. He said the role of a trustee dictates that he not profit personally from the estate he is managing.

Meanwhile, Beck, who invoked the Fifth Amendment in two separate hearings, declined to answer questions.

Ike Sets Speech For Next Tuesday

WASHINGTON, May 10 (UP)—The White House today fixed next Tuesday evening as the time for President Eisenhower's nationwide radio-TV speech in support of his $71,800,000 spending budget.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower will speak from his White House office for 30 minutes, starting at 9 p.m. EDT.

The address will be carried "live" at that time by NBC-TV and radio, Mutual Radio, ABC radio, and CBS radio.

END TO ATOM TESTS

Washington Scoffs At Soviet Demand

MOSCOW, May 10 (UP)—Both houses of the Soviet Parliament voted unanimously Friday to ask the American Congress and the British Parliament to join it in an immediate ban of nuclear test explosions.

(Congressional leaders in Washington immediately dismissed the idea.)

In London, a foreign office spokesman said the proposal was the "latest move" in a Soviet campaign designed to "mislead public opinion on the matter of nuclear tests."

The vote by the 1,347 members of the Supreme Soviet followed criticism of Western nuclear proposals by Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and a denunciation of American "aggressive policies" by five other speakers in the great hall of the Kremlin.

Industrial Program

The two houses—the Council of the Union and the Council of Nationalities—also unanimously approved party Secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev's sweeping industrial reorganization program after Khrushchev warned that workers may find their pay docked if they fail to carry out their jobs.

Emphasis at the final session of the parliament Friday, however, was on nuclear policy.

A resolution presented to both houses called for an appeal to Congress and the British Parliament for immediate cessation of atomic and hydrogen test explosions.

Under the resolution, a joint committee of the three legislative bodies would exchange opinions on the methods of outlawing such blasts.

Unanimous Approval

Approval was by a unanimous show of hands in both houses which vetoed on the proposal its separate units.

The parliament voted after Gromyko charged that the Western powers "consistently oppose and undermine efforts to reach agreement" on disarmament.

During his 20-minute address, the first he has made to parliament since becoming foreign minister last February, Gromyko reiterated Russia's intention to continue to produce and test nuclear weapons as long as there is no international agreement banning them.

He offered the first official Russian reaction to the proposal of President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan at their Bermuda conference last March to register all test explosions in advance on grounds that can be carried out undetected.

"This contradicts the facts," Gromyko said. "The explosion has not yet occurred which remained undetected."

ONE 'MOST WANTED'

Three Charged In Laurel Bank Case

HATTIESBURG, Miss., May 10 (AP)—FBI agents today filed charges of armed robbery against three men arrested in connection with the $9,885 "diamond jubilee" robbery of a Laurel bank Tuesday.

U. S. Commissioner Margaret Estes set bond at $15,000 each and the three men were lodged in Forrest County jail. They were not required to and did not plead during their arraignment.

Wore Disguise

Agents said two men entered the bank disguised as a clown and a priest and the third was the getaway car driver. The costumes blended well in the holiday crowds celebrating Laurel's 75th anniversary. The getaway car, stolen shortly before the robbery, was found in a parking lot a few hours later.

The FBI identified the three men as:

Charles Lawrence Sullivan, 34, of Syracuse, N. Y., an ex-convict who has been on the FBI's most wanted list since 1953 for rape and interstate transportation of stolen vehicles and property. He said he was the gun-toting clown.

Jesse Woodrow Easterling, 44, of Laurel, a former state penitentiary convict, identified as the priest.

J. B. Hankins, 24, of Laurel, identified as the getaway car driver.

Jones County Sheriff Fred Walters and highway patrolmen said Sullivan was arrested Wednesday as he trudged along a gravel road seven miles southeast of Laurel. Easterling was arrested near Lucedale and Hankins at home, both last night.

Sullivan was arrested after a farm woman reported a "strange man" in the area. As officers approached, Sullivan pulled $4,300 from his pockets and said, "Here's the money. I'm him, the man you're looking for."

No Winners Are Uncovered In This Week's Morning World Cross Word Puzzle Contest

By BONANZA BILL

There were no winners in this week's Morning World crossword puzzle competition, and the $400 jackpot went untapped. The award level in next week's offering will be raised to $425.

Here are explanations of the more difficult clues to this week's solution:

CLUES ACROSS:

3. ARCH not ARCS. The phrase "with geometric precision" is only applied to things that are NOT GEOMETRY (e.g. ranks of soldiers, etc.) but the ARC is a "geometric" form.

5. CUSTARD not MUSTARD. People "don't EAT MUSTARD" as such—it is a case of not liking food flavored with MUSTARD.

7. ACE not AGE. AGE and AWE are vague. A "player" may have to MAKE ALLOWANCES for "his partner's" AGE, but hardly to actually "bear it in mind," during the play. This idea is more suited to an ACE known to be held by your "partner."

8. REPORTS not RETORTS. REPORTS is vague. Being "un-

Blaze Hits Outskirts Of Plymouth

PLYMOUTH, Mass., May 10 (UP)—A shift in the wind helped soot-blackened firefighters stop a savage forest fire tonight in the outskirts of this historic Pilgrim town. State police said the fire, still raging in spots, had been confined.

The wind halted the advancing flames less than a mile from the center of town after hundreds of exhausted firemen had waged a fierce battle in the streets to save homes.

Historical sites were not endangered and the fire was still some distance from the congested part of town when it was contained. Fire officials said, however, that a soaking rain was needed to end the peril entirely from the fire that had swept 20,000 acres in 48 hours.

Light rain began to fall tonight over eastern Massachusetts which has been parched by a month-long drought.

Controlling Other Blazes

As soon as the flames subsided, bulldozers went to work clearing fire breaks in case the fire should pick up again Saturday.

Almost at the same time, firefighters were bringing under control, or containing, large forest fires at Taunton, Athol, Montague and Fitchburg, Mass. In the Berkshires, .34 inches of rain fell over a wide area, bringing welcome relief.

All major fires in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, which also received some rain, were contained today.

Threatened Hospital

The fire came within a half-mile of Jordan hospital on the south side of Plymouth before the wind shifted it away. Ambulances were waiting to evacuate 50 patients.

Crouched behind equipment lined bumper-to-bumper along Braley Lane, hundreds of grimy firemen fought the raging fire to a standstill to save a dozen houses.

Then the fire shot toward the ocean, endangering another residential section.

Authorities said that after the fire penetrated the outskirts, the situation was more critical for Plymouth than at any other time since the fire broke out 48 hours ago.

Rain began to fall on Plymouth two hours after the fire was contained.

Slot Machines Reported Near Gretna School

GRETNA, La., May 10 (UP)—The principal at Gretna No. 2 elementary school and a teacher complained today slot machines in the vicinity of the schools are taking pupils' lunch money.

Mrs. Elaine Charles, the principal, said she would appeal to the Jefferson Parish School Board to remove the slots located in groceries.

Mrs. Charles called Gretna police today after Albert Decker, a teacher, reported he had seen two students playing the old-fashion "one-armed bandit" type of slot.

The New Orleans States said one of its reporters found a racehorse type machine in another grocery near the school.

The newspaper said Decker and a reporter later visited the place where the old type machine was located, but it was gone.

Gretna Chief of Police Beauregard Miller said he knew nothing of the complaints and had no comment, the States said.

A. B. KESSLER
A. B. Kessler of Monroe, Louisiana has been appointed Monroe-West Monroe manager for Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company effective May 15, it was announced yesterday by W. E. Whetstone, district manager.

Kessler is replacing J. T. Clements, Jr., who is being transferred to New Orleans.

The new manager was educated in high school at Eunice, Louisiana, completed his education at Louisiana State University, and joined the company in 1950 in the New Orleans office.

In April, 1954, he was appointed manager in Winnsboro. Prior to this, he was a supervisor in the company's Shreveport office. In June of 1956, he moved here as Monroe suburban manager.

In addition to his responsibilities as manager to Monroe-West Monroe, Kessler will be responsible for telephone operations in Calhoun and Sterlington.

Kessler is active in the Lions Club, Boy Scouts of America, and the Jaycees. Kessler's wife is the former Lanelle Bryant of Ringgold. They have one son, Charles, and are members of the Baptist Church.

Rainfall Higher Than Last Year In 5 Parishes

OLLA (Special) — The rainfall in Caldwell, Catahoula, Grant, Winn and La Salle parishes was greater during the first four months of this year than a comparable period last year, according to records kept at the Louisiana Forestry Commission headquarters here.

The rainfall for Caldwell parish during January, February, March and April, 1956, was 18.75. The 1957 rainfall during the first four months was 23.49.

Rainfall in Catahoula for the first four months in 1956 was 17.48. The rainfall during the first four months in 1957 was 21.07.

There was 19.02 rainfall in Grant parish during the first four months in 1956 while the 1957 rainfall during the same period was 22.41.

Progress Report On Dodson New Town Hall Made

DODSON (Special) — The progress report on the new Dodson Town Hall highlighted the regular city council meeting here this week.

The building committee reported the foundation for the new town hall was being laid and will be complete within the next several days.

The building will be of cinder block and lumber, with the lumber donated by Mayor C.P. Payne. It will be 30 by 40 feet with an overall floor space of 1200 feet. There will be a record room, council meeting room and a lobby. Part of the work will be done by volunteer crews.

NSC Slates Baccalaureate

NATCHITOCHES, (Special)—A Shreveport minister, Rev. Thomas C. Duncan, pastor of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, will preach the spring baccalaureate sermon at Northwestern State College at 8 p.m. on May 26 in the NSC Fine Arts Auditorium.

Formerly a chaplain in the U. S. Navy, Rev. Duncan served as pastor of the York, Ala., Presbyterian Church before going to the Shreveport church in 1952.

A native of Aliceville, Ala., he holds degrees from Southwestern at Memphis, the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary and Princeton Theological Semnary, where he received a master's degree.

His sermon title will be "Life's Great Acceptances," with scripture reading from Romans 10:1-13.

Some 187 Northwestern seniors are candidates for degrees this semester. Commencement exercises are scheduled for 8 p.m. on May 18, also in the auditorium.

Dr. C. E. Dugdale, chairman of the graduation committee, said three other ministers will have parts in the baccalaureate program. They are the Rev. Earl Wiggins of the Natchitoches Presbyterian church, the Rev. George Pearce of the First Methodist Church and the Rev. Ernest Lilley, Grand Ecore Baptist Church.

Processional and recessional music will be furnished by organist Lorane Brittain of the NSC music faculty. Choral music will be provided by the College Singers, directed by Dr. Donald Glattly, also of Northwestern.

Honor Society Initiates 18 Tech Students

RUSTON (Special) Eighteen students of Louisiana Tech have been initiated by the honor society of Phi Kappa Phi.

They are as follows: Julinda Abu Nasr, Lebanon; Bobby Dale Barrett, Lillie; Herman H. DeLoach, Ruston; Martha Ann Gillen, Shreveport; Bennie Bob Goodwin, Homer; Ann Harper, Springhill; Robert Doyle Holstead, West Monroe; Thomas H. Jones, Arcadia.

Charles Ray Lott, Ruston; Betty Sue McDonald, Heflin; Shirley McLean, Ruston; Betty Ruth Martin, Ruston; Joe Davis Purvis, West Monroe; James F. Stanford, Shreveport; Arthur Max Stracener, Jr., DeRidder; Lynelle Widick, Shreveport; Lora Willis, Monroe; Dolores Wimberley, Castor.

Election to membership is based on scholarship and character. Members are chosen from the upper five per cent of the second semester juniors and from the upper twelve and one-half per cent of the seniors.

The chapter at Tech now has 61 student members and 32 faculty members.

LPSC Moves Against Motels, Hotels Clarified

BATON ROUGE, May 10 (AP)—Chairman Nat B. Knight said today the Louisiana Public Service Commission was only seeking information about "charges made by hotels and motels for telephone service," not to regulate their operation.

The commission has called on motel and hotel operators to show why their telephone service should not be regulated.

Gov. Earl Long told a press conference Tuesday some charges were "exorbitant and unreasonable" for outside calls but said he didn't think the commission should regulate motel and hotel operations.

Knight charged "uninformed sources are misadvising the public" about the inquiry.

"... the commission is interested solely in the charges made by these establishments for rendering telephone service and its inquiry is prompted by complaint from guests who feel that the current charge of 20 cents for each outgoing call made by some of these establishments is exorbitant, in view of the fact that the charge made to the guests is considerably more than the amount paid to the telephone company by the hotel or motel," Knight said, adding:

"These charges by the hotels and motels for telephone service are regulated in a number of states throughout the nation... Certain statements recently published have given the impression that the commission is attempting to regulate hotels and motels. Nothing could be further from the truth."

Four From Area Will Testify On River Projects

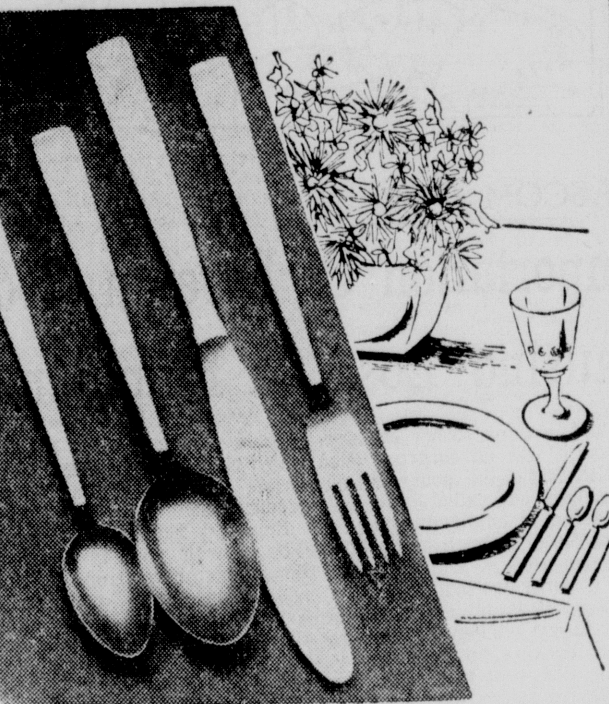

Four area men will represent the Ouachita River Valley Association from next Tuesday through Friday, when they testify before Congressional appropriations committees in Washington, D.C.

Seeking a minimum of $2.2 million for flood control, major drainage and navigation projects they will be one of several delegations from the lower Mississippi Valley. Area representatives will be Theo G. Preston, marine manager for Commercial Solvents Corp., Monroe; H. W. McMillan, president of the Ouachita River Valley Association of Arkadelphia; P. G. Anderson, vice-president of the association, of El Dorado; and H. K. Thatcher, the association's executive vice-president, of Camden.

The Ouachita River projects include: Maintenance of the present six and one-half foot Ouachita River channel, $425,000; continuation of construction of the Boeuf-Tensas-Bayou Macon drainage project, $950,000; Also, maintenance of Blakeley Mountain dam and reservoir, $210,000; maintenance of Narrows dam and reservoir, $195,000; advance engineering and design for a modern nine-foot navigation channel in the Ouachita River, $150,000; completion of Calion levee, $210,000; planning and surveying small projects throughout the basin, $100,000; and $100,000 minimum for the start of construction on the over-all $21.7 million Ouachita River nine-foot channel project.

Army Sees Way To End Engineering Shortage

The Army is convinced it has a plan which can help it lick the shortage of engineers.

When studies showed that Army scientists and engineers spend up to 50 per cent of their working time on administrative and non-professional duties not requiring scientific skills, it was apparent something had to be done to combat this waste.

A plan has been evolved of hiring young college graduates with backgrounds in business administration to act as aides to the scientific and engineering staffs. It is to be tried out at the Ft. Belvoir, Va., Engineer Research and Development Laboratories.

These young graduates will take over accounting, inventories, specification review, record-keeping, non-technical specification preparation, procurement and contractual duties, reviewing publications for their superiors, expediting paper work, handling security matters, and preparing non-technical reports.

Considerable attention will be focused on this experiment. If it works, the innovation will have a great appeal to hard-pressed industries also suffering from an engineering shortage.

Government Backing Culture In Canada

Culture is to be given a government boost in Canada through a newly-created agency. This unique new "Canadian culture pump" is to be headed by a top insurance executive, Brooke Claxton, who will be advised by a 21-man group to be known as the Canadian Council.

The general philosophy of the creation revealed by parliamentary debate, is that it is now time that Canada shed some of its north woods ways. (Advocates hasten to add that Canada has a fine ballet, museums, symphony orchestras, and other examples of culture).

Half the money is to be spent in the next 10 years in construction grants to colleges and for scholarships. No one is objecting to that.

The controversy mostly came on the estimated $2 million a year which will be used for support of various cultural activities to be determined by the council.

For example, a Social Credit Party spokesman recently shouted at his party's convention, "The allocation of more than $100 million from the national treasury for agencies of culture and entertainment while old age security is limited to $46 a month and while income taxes cut far too deeply into wage earner's income, is an inexcusable folly."

England has had an Arts Council and countries on the continent have long subsidized opera, the theater, ballet and other arts.

But the Canadian venture is something new. Its outcome will be of considerable interest here in the New World which too often has had an inferiority complex about its "culture."

Congress Tax-Cutters Struggling Manfully

In response to mounting public clamor for less federal spending and reduced taxes Congress is struggling manfully with the budget. But notwithstanding its paper cuts the suspicion is growing that the legislative branch of the government for the most part is jousting with windmills.

The deeper the congressional economizers delve into the bottomless abyss of the budget the more it's apparent that Congress has largely forfeited effective control of federal spending.

To many persons this may be an unnerving discovery. But it is interesting to consider some of the circumstances that are emerging in this budget hassle. They are by no means new but they haven't been the subject of much popular concern up to now because the people have seemed content to let the government spend about as much as it pleased.

Now the people are calling for economy and Congress is trying to respond. But what are some of the difficulties that emerge? In the first place, it develops that saving money isn't simply a matter of cutting down on the President's spending requests for fiscal 1958. It turns out that Congress could cut the President's requests nearly in two without greatly affecting the government's actual outlays in the year ahead.

There is no direct and effective control either by Congress or the executive branch over expenditures in a particular year in relation to the revenues anticipated for that year. This a circumstance that was pointed out by the Hoover Commission which recommended an annual accrual budget in place of the present budget based on obligatory authority.

Under the accrual budget spending authorizations would be granted for one-year periods in terms of authority for specific expenditures.

In his message to House Speaker Sam Rayburn suggesting certain possible cuts in his budget President Eisenhower made one recommendation that didn't get the attention it deserved. He called for the enactment of legislation to implement the Hoover Commission recommendation for budgeting on the basis of annual accrued expenditures.

Under present budget practices it's apparent that Congress is struggling all but helplessly with the stuck controls of a runaway spending engine.

GEORGE SOKOLSKY'S DAYS

M'Carthy's Controversial Record Not To Be Objectively Rated For Years

WASHINGTON, May 10 (CQ)—Wisconsin's Republican Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy leaves behind a controversial record that won't be objectively evaluated for years. He was condemned by his colleagues in 1954 for "obstructing the constitutional processes of the Senate" because he refused to heed a request to appear before a Senate committee investigating his finances in 1951-52 and abused a select committee studying censure charges.

After the condemnation, Sen. McCarthy lost the power that had made him a household word and himself a national campaign issue in 1952. His death leaves Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) as ranking Republican member of the Government Operations Committee. Mundt was one of 22 Senators who voted against condemning McCarthy; 67 voted in favor of the resolution. This was the third such resolution in the Senate's history.

Sen. McCarthy's death leaves vacancies on the Appropriations Committee and its Subcommittees on Agriculture, Labor - Health, Education and Welfare and State and Justice. McCarthy was one of the Select Committee to Investigate Improper Activities in the Labor and Management Fields. He was ranking Republican on the Rules Committee, but had waived his seniority to Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb.) since he was GOP senior member of the Government Operations Committee.

The Senate lineup currently stands at 4 Democrats and 46 Republicans. Wisconsin has a Republican governor in Vernon Thomson, but state law says he cannot appoint a successor to Sen. McCarthy. Thomson either can call a special election or leave the seat vacant until the November, 1958, election.

In either case, a primary would be held. In Wisconsin, the primary would be open — any voter, regardless of party, could vote in it. President Eisenhower in 1956 received 61.6 per cent of the Wisconsin vote; in 1952 he won the state with 61 per cent of the vote. Sen. McCarthy in 1952 received 54.2 per cent of the vote; Sen. Ale, under Wiley (R) was reelected in 1956 with 58.6 per cent of the vote over Democrat Henry W. Maier.

Thomson, in his election as governor, received 51 per cent of the vote over Democrat William Proxmire, making his third bid for office. Proxmire lost in 1954 he lost to three-term Gov. Walter J. Kohler (R) by only 35,411 votes. He lost one previous bid to Kohler also.

Maier, State Sen. Gaylord Nels and Proxmire all are likely candidates for the Democratic nomination. Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D) has been mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate. In the 5th District last year, Reuss won 57.7 per cent of the vote compared to 53.3 per cent for Mr. Eisenhower and 53.9 for Wiley. In 1952 Reuss won the district from a Republican with only 51.6 per cent of the vote while Mr. Eisenhower got 54.8. Reuss is the only one of three Wisconsin Democratic Representatives to have increased the percentage of his vote in 1954 and again in 1956.

What could be a long list of GOP hopefuls is headed by Kohler who, prior to Sen. McCarthy's illness, was considering opposing him in 1954. Ex-Rep. Glenn R. Davis (R) may be a candidate; he lost the 1956 primary to Wiley by about 10,000 votes even though he had the support of the state GOP. State Republicans met June 7 and 8 for their annual convention; they may endorse a candidate then.

The statistics of Sen. McCarthy's political career portray a metamorphosis of Democratic to Republican to Independent.

Importation Of Foreign Products Is Causing Loss Of Employment In U. S.

It had to come sooner or later, which can lay down essential materials at less cost than we can produce them here. Rep. Ed Edmondson (Dem.-Okla.), with the assistance of House members from Missouri and Kansas, both Democrats and Republicans, told how the lead and zinc industry in those three states has shut down as a result of foreign importations, causing extensive unemployment in all three. There is nothing new in protests by local congressmen that industries in their districts are suffering from foreign competition. In the last 20 years, however, the U. S. has gone through an era in which its desire to help foreign allies has taken form of reduced tariff duties on their products.

One Person Out Of Every 18 Holding Two Jobs At Once

Marie is a teacher in the public school system of New York. Every weekday after school closes she reports to a Manhattan printing house where she has a job correcting manuscripts. Jack is a foreman in a factory in Hartford, Conn. Every Saturday and during at least two weekday evenings, Jack may be found working in a prosperous repair shop near his home.

Bob owns a medium-sized vegetable farm in the heart of New Jersey. Bob also has a connection with a New Jersey construction firm, and right now he is managing the farm and working on a construction job on the side.

Marie, Jack and Bob are real people. I have known them for years, have known about their dual jobholding, but until now I have simply accepted what they were doing as part of their own way of life.

Now though, a just-released report by the U. S. Census Bureau reveals that these three individuals personify a deeply significant employment trend in our land. For "moonlighting" — this holding of a second job in addition to the regular job — is climbing to the highest levels ever.

Today, one out of every 18 workers in this country is holding down two jobs simultaneously. The total is a huge 3,700,000. This compares with one out of every 33 workers — or 1,800,000 — who held a couple of jobs at the same time in 1950.

The trend toward dual jobholding is particularly startling in the trade and service industries. In these fields the number of people regularly employed who also have taken on "spare time" jobs has tripled in the past six years.

Moonlighting is most common among employed married men — with one out of every 13 in this classification. The family breadwinner, in short, is more likely to have two jobs than the single or divorced man.

And the dual jobholder is most likely to be a married man between 25 and 55 — the group raising families, financing big purchases. This, mind you, is a trend reaching a peak at a time when

Teen-Agers Should Accept Proper Responsibilities

Arthur should never surrender to his stage fright. Even Moses had it, too, and the Bible says that God grew angry at Moses when the latter tried to beg off from his duty. "Learn to accept your duties even though you may be fearful. The 'Rule of Three' will help you win."

Case U-378: Arthur B., aged 17, is a high school senior. "Dr. Crane, I have been elected president of the Young People's Society in my church," he informed me.

But I know how to make an interesting talk. In fact, I can hardly say a word in public because I am so scared.

"My hands tremble till I can't read my notes, either, and I blush and stutter."

"Do you think I ought to resign and let somebody else handle the job who can perform better than I can?"

Remember Moses. Moses was just as timid and addicted to stage fright as Arthur, when God told him to lead the Israelites out of Egypt.

And Moses began to make excuses, saying he was slow of speech and with a slow tongue (stutterer).

But God told Moses to go ahead, anyway. The Bible even adds: "And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Moses." (Exodus 4:14)

All of you teen-agers should resolve to accept your proper responsibilities when they come your way.

Don't fret unduly because you are inexperienced or shy or a victim of stage fright.

So is everybody when he tackles a new job. And stage fright is a universal trait of those who speak in public.

Never surrender to your fears, therefore, but grit your teeth and boldly tackle your duties.

Soon you will conquer your former bugaboo. For the "Rule of Three" in psychology will help you win.

Rule Of Three That "Rule of Three" says if you

PAUL HARVEY

Reuther's Charge Called Hypocritical Denunciation

Walter Reuther nailed down his own recent re-election with a forthright demand that labor "clean house."

He denounced the Dave Becks, the teamsters who accepted bribes, and the businessmen who paid them.

Washington is in over its ears, splashing around in a flood tide of accusations.

"I had a government job to do and the only way the Teamsters would let my truck through was for me to pay up. The FBI knew about it. The Navy knew about it and gave me the money for it. There was no other way to get the job done."

"The fact is," said Senator Kennedy indignantly, "you were paying them a bribe."

The word slid from his lips, a loathsome thing.

Senator McNamara was equally incensed. When he thrust the word "bribe" at the witness, it sounded soiled and ugly.

What makes a bribe? It is to be hoped the indignant Senators have never returned any favor to any constituent who may have contributed substantially to their own election campaigns. But it would be understandable.

In the more obvious case of Walter Reuther, who considers bribery so odious and undesirable, we'd better alter the meaning of the word.

Webster calls it "a thing purchased or extorted." If your union requires that you contribute to a "political kitty" in order to keep your job — you are paying a bribe.

Whatever the law decides, Webster would call the union's demand "extortion" and your payment "a bribe."

Industry is not guiltless, in this fund raising regard. But so far Mr. Reuther is the more vulnerable by virtue of his hypocritical denunciation of the "bribe takers," when his own union has been most utterly arbitrary in requiring its members to "contribute" from their salaries under implied threat of losing their jobs.

Senator Barry Goldwater blames Mr. Reuther's "personal political ambition."

"Walter Reuther, with union funds, is creating a powerful political party and the imposition of his Socialist philosophies on the United States."

What is a bribe? Some profess "shock" that a leak from a CAB hearing resulted in stock market profits insiders.

It is common knowledge now — pay persons have accepted low — pay government jobs just to be in straits.

State Industry Expansion Near $2 Billion Mark

BOGALUSA, La., May 10 (CQ)—Executive director Curt Siegelin of the State Department of Commerce and Industry tonight predicted Louisiana's postwar industrial growth will pass the two billion mark this year.

Siegelin, speaking at a citywide meeting at Bogalusa Junior High, said in the first 10 years since 1946 when the 10-year industrial tax exemption program was approved, the state's industrial exemption totaled $1,764,249.02.

This new industry created 62,247 new jobs, Siegelin said his department estimated.

"Louisiana is expanding industrially at a rate of better than a million dollars a day," Siegelin said, "and I believe we can look forward to continued expansion of our vast water and petroleum resources."

McNeese Swamps Northeast State, 15-2

Southwestern Here For Two Battles Today

By BOB ANDERSON

An eight-run explosion in the first inning was all McNeese needed to beat Northeast here yesterday but they added seven more tallies to rout the Indians 15-2.

Southwestern Louisiana Institute moves into Monroe today for a double header with the Tribe, beginning at 1:30 o'clock in games that were supposed to conclude Northeast's Gulf States Conference season. But it's possible the Tribe may make up a rained out game with Northwestern next week if the game is needed to help settle the leadership of the league.

Coach George Luffey last night named Bo Laird to pitch today's opener against the Bulldogs. Lyle Dorsey will pitch the nightcap.

Sanford Hurls 3-Hitter; Phils Whip Bucs, 3-1

PITTSBURGH, May 10 (UP)—The three-hit pitching of rookie Jack Sanford, Granny Hamner's second homer of the year and a sparkling defensive play by shortstop Chico Fernandez added up to a 3-1 victory for the Philadelphia Phillies over the Pittsburgh Pirates tonight.

Sanford, a returned serviceman who threw a special pitch to prevent his throwing arm from becoming numb because of a circulatory condition, gave up a scratch single to Dick Groat in the first inning, a single to Hank Foiles in the seventh, and a triple to Foiles in the ninth when Pittsburgh scored its only run.

The clever righthander displayed a good fastball, a sharp curve and an effective change-up to fan 10 batters enroute to his fourth victory without defeat.

The Phils got some unexpected assistance from reliever Luis Arroyo who wild-pitched the visitors' final two runs home in the eighth.

The Cowboys got the final score in the seventh when King walked, stole second and came home on Reed's single.

Indian Coach George Luffey pulled out all the stops in the final frame, sending four pinchhitters to the plate. The first one, "Bo" Laird, came through with a single. The next one, Vernon Freeman, wangled a walk and Laird went to second. Laird went to third and came on home with a double play on Ronnie Walters' grounder to short. They got Freeman at second but were too slow to catch Walters at first. Walters tried to swipe second and was thrown out and Rouse fanned to end the game.

ONE-STROKE EDGE Besselink In Front At SPA

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 10 (UP)—Big Al Besselink laughed at fate for the second straight day today and whittled four strokes off par with a 34-68 to take a one-stroke lead at the halfway point of the $20,000 Arlington Open Golf Tournament with a 138.

The Grossingers, N. Y., veteran had more than a dozen rivals breathing down his neck less than four strokes back, but from the way he's flaunted misfortune in the face, that pressure may not bother him a whit.

After he called a two-stroke penalty on himself for playing another man's ball in posting an even par 72 yesterday, Besselink wasted little time bumping into some golf shenanigans in today's second round.

His second shot of the day landed on top of Jim Turnesa's just in front of the first green and kicked Turnesa's ball onto the green while his own skittered off into a sand trap. He blasted out to within less than six feet of the cup and got down for his par.

With that shocker behind him, he bogeyed the third hole, then settled down to post three birdies on the front side and as many more coming home.

Jimmy Demaret of Kiamas Lake, N. Y., fired the hottest round of the day, a six-under-par 33-66, to head up a four-some at 139 only one stroke back of Besselink's pace.

The others were defending champion Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., who had a 69 today; Billy Casper of Bonita, Calif., and Johnny Palmer of Tulsa, Okla., each of whom had sub-par 70s.

Six other players were bracketed at 140, three at 141, five at 142 and 13 bunched still in contention at 143 as the tightly-packed field fought for the $2,800 first prize money.

Jack Burke of Kiamas Lake, N. Y., who shared the first round lead with Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill., had a 72 today to put him in the 140 bunch with Paul Harney of Bolton, Mass., Bud Holscher of Apple Valley, Calif., Mike Souchak of Gossingers, N. Y., Lloyd Mangrum of Apple Valley, Calif., and British Open champ Peter Thomson.

Furgol skidded to a three-over-par 75 and was among those in the 143 group.

Bo Winger of Odessa, Tex., who won the inaugural tourney here two years ago, was at 141 along with Bob Rosburg of San Francisco and a local pro, Pete Fleming.

Gomez, notching his fourth victory of the year against one defeat, shut out the Dodgers with five hits until the eighth inning when Don Zimmer doubled and scored on Pee Wee Reese's single. Gomez struck out two batters and didn't walk any as he evened his lifetime record against the Dodgers at eight victories and eight losses.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Tulane Holds Scant Lead Over LSU, Florida Rivals

BATON ROUGE, May 10 (UP)—Defending champion Tulane edged ahead of Louisiana State University and Florida today in a three-cornered race for the Southeastern Conference tennis title.

After two days, Tulane had 2 points while Florida and LSU each had 21.

However, Tulane, seeking its seventh straight title and 15th in 19 SEC tournaments, advanced five men into the singles finals, while Florida had four singles finalists and LSU three. No other school placed a man in the singles finals.

Tulane's Jose Aguerro, defending No. 1 singles champion, breezed into the finals without losing a game. The former Brazilian Davis Cup player and 1955 national collegiate champion whipped Robert Nichols of Georgia Tech and Lindsey Hopkins of Georgia, both by 6-0, 6-0 scores.

Ron Holmberg, Crawford Henry, Carl Goodman and Lester Sack also marched into the number two, three, four and five singles finals for Tulane with difficulty.

Florida's Dick Leslie downed Kenny Carter of LSU 7-5, 9-7 in the No. 1 singles to win the right to meet Aguerro in tomorrow's finals.

Other Florida finalists include Dave Shaw in No. 4 singles, Dan

Guzman-Perry in No. 5 and Hugh Waters in the No. 6 bracket. Waters upset topseeded Paul Metz of Georgia Tech 2-6, 6-3, 6-4 LSU's Buddy Gomez.

Other LSU finalists include Ronnie Fenasci in No. 2 and Tom Robinson in No. 3.

The only Tulane player knocked out before the finals was Sonny Tsai, who lost to Metz 6-2, 6-4, in a second-round match.

LSU took a brief lead early in the day when all six Tiger singles entries won their way into the semifinals, but dropped behind by losing three of six semifinals matches.

Georgia Tech held a narrow lead in the freshman division with eight points, while Tulane's freshman entry had seven and Mississippi State six.

AG Jumper Breaks Oldest Loop Mark

AUSTIN, May 10 (UP)—Broad jumper Emmett Smallwood of Texas A&M smashed the oldest record of the Southwest Conference books today, and Bruce Parker of Texas set a new javelin mark to highlight preliminaries opening the annual spring meet.

Smallwood led the way in the Southwest Conference track and field competition as he leaped 25 feet, 1 1/8 inches to shatter the old mark of 24 feet, 9 3/4 inches set by Mike Hale of Rice in 1932.

Parker hurled the javelin 220 feet, 7 3/4 inches to topple the previous conference standard of 216 feet, 8 1/2 inches registered by Doc O'Neill of Southern Methodist in 1939.

Texas qualified a host of entries in preliminaries to pave the way for an expected assault on the all-time team scoring record in finals Saturday night.

Broad jump records fell in both the varsity and freshman divisions in preliminaries, as Leonard Fawcett of Rice leaped 24 feet, 3 1/2 inches to eclipse the old frosh record of 23 feet, 3 inches set by Southern Methodist's Dick Orsini in 1955.

In the varsity section, Pat McGuire of Texas also bettered the old broad jump record as he qualified behind Smallwood with a leap of 24 feet, 11 3/4 inches.

Texas qualified a total of 23 places, led by Olympic star Eddie Southern, who ran a 22.9-second effort in the 220-yard low hurdles. He also will run Saturday night in the 120-yard high hurdles, in which preliminaries were unnecessary.

Rice had 11 qualifiers. Texas' speedy Bobby Whilden qualified in the 100-yard dash with a 9.7 second run, and a 21.5-second performance in the 200-yard dash.

Other Texas qualifiers included Hollis Gaine in the 100 and 220, Wall Wilson, Lavern Voight and Ralph Rosenberg in the 440-yard dash, J. Frank Daugherty in the 220, Austin Palmer in the low hurdles, George Foerster and Brooks Patrick in the 880-yard run, and Ronnie White and Bobby Sillwell in the broad jump.

The host Longhorns were expected to threaten records Saturday night in the 440-yard relay, with Joe Villarreal in the mile and in two-mile runs, Southern in the hurdles, and McGuire in a new bid for the broad jump record.

Behind Texas and Rice were Baylor with nine qualifiers, A&M with six, Texas Christian with four, Arkansas, three, and Southern Methodist, two.

Texas also led in total qualifiers in the freshman division, with 15 while newcomer Texas Tech qualified 13, Rice eight, Southern Methodist seven, Baylor five and TCU A&M and Arkansas four each.

Herman Johnson of Texas A&M won the only championship event of the day in the varsity division heaving the discus 169 feet only one foot short of the Southwest Conference record of 170 feet set by Darrow Hooper of Texas A&M in the 1953.

Spike Trouble With Bradley Irks St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, May 10 (UP)—Phil Dynan, coach of St. Louis University's baseball team, today complained of the "sharp practices" of Bradley's team during the three-game series for the Missouri Valley Conference title last week-end.

Three of our players are nursing spike wounds suffered in those three games at Peoria," Dynan said. "If it takes deliberate spiking of opponents to win a ball game we at St. Louis U. want no part of winning."

Dynan said he was convinced the spike wounds were not inflicted accidentally.

"Bradley's runners were going into the bag with one foot high," he said. "Our second baseman, Bill Harless, came out of one play with his pants so cut up we had to throw them away. He has three spike wounds above the knee, all deep."

Dynan named Gil Geogier, the shortstop, and first baseman Rich Rogers as the other spike victims. Rogers, he said, was cut just above the shoe top when a runner slid into first base, "a most unusual practice."

Dynan conceded "we were well beaten" and said his charge was not an alibi for defeats.

"But it's a practice that must be brought out in the open and discussed because it has to be stopped," he said. "We want color in our games, but the color doesn't have to be red."

Pittman Takes League's Golf Title To SMU

AUSTIN, May 10 (UP)—Southern Methodist's Jerry Pittman, runner-up to Bobby Nichols in the 1956 tourney, was not to be denied today as the trim junior captured the individual championship of the Southwest Conference golf tournament at the Austin Country Club.

Pittman trailed Texas' Kirby Attwell by two strokes going into the final 18 holes of the 72-hole medal play tournament, but quickly took the lead at the midway point of the final round with a fine 33, while Attwell soared to a 39.

Pittman finished with a 72-hole score of 273, two under par for the country club course. Attwell was runner with 281 followed by 1955 co-champion John Garrett of Rice with a 283.

Nichols tied for fifth place with Don Harmon of Baylor and Don Massengale of TCU with a 288. Tommy Seeketz of Texas followed the three leaders in fourth place with a 285.

WIFE WILL DECIDE

Dressen Asks Time To Decide On Post

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER
WASHINGTON, May 10 (UP)—Charley Dressen said today he wants to talk the whole thing over with his wife before deciding whether to take a newly created player-finding job in the Washington Senators' front office.

Dressen, fired as manager of the last-place Senators earlier this week, huddled for almost an hour this morning with club President Calvin Griffith and the five other directors. They exchanged views on what the Senators need to do to rise from the depths of the American League and how Dressen would fit into the plans.

Two Arizona Schools Win Border Titles

TUCSON, Ariz., May 10 (UP)—Arizona State College of Tempe won the golf championship and the University of Arizona won the tennis championship in Border Conference play today.

State's foursome of Duff Lawrence, Dirk Prather, Stan Hoabert and Jim Bernard posted a 36 hole aggregate score of 572, four under par and 7 strokes better than second place Arizona, which had 609. Hardin-Simmons was third with 628 and West Texas fourth with 702.

In the tennis competition, Arizona scored 23 points, Hardin-Simmons 20, Texas Western 14, Arizona State 8, West Texas 1 and New Mexico A&M 0.

Ernest Schoop of Arizona pulled a surprising upset when he defeated his Arizona teammate, Ellis Bryant, top seeded player in the meet, 6-3, 5-7, 11-9 in the Class A singles finals.

In the Class A doubles finals, Bryant and Schoop defeated Wayne Miller and Jerry Goad of Hardin-Simmons, 6-2, 6-1.

The energetic little veteran of 38 seasons in organized baseball told reporters afterward the proposition sounded "more appealing" than some critics of the club had suggested it would be.

He said he'd be back in several days, probably next Monday, to confer again with the directors. He indicated he'd announce his decision then.

In the meantime, however, Dressen said he wants to give it further thought and "call my wife and talk to her."

Mrs. Dressen, now at their home in Los Angeles, has played an important partnership role in his career ever since the couple married in 1942.

It was she who helped him compose the letter in which Dressen demanded more than a one-year contract from Brooklyn after piloting the Dodgers to their second straight National League pennant in 1953. Dodger President Walter O'Malley wouldn't yield, so the Dressens packed their bags and took off.

Charley spent a year as manager of Oakland before returning to the Majors with Washington in 1955. His senators were in a miserable slump when Griffith hurried to Detroit last Tuesday to make Coach Cokie Lavagetto manager and offer Dressen the upstairs position.

Griffith said today the job is one Dressen and he had discussed for three seasons. Dressen hadn't proposed himself for it, Griffith said, but "he was my selection."

The board met one of Dressen's conditions by offering him a contract extending through 1959 at an undisclosed salary. Regardless of what happens, he may still draw the estimated $35,000 for which he signed to manage the Senators this season.

From Griffith's description, Dressen would track down fresh talent, find out who is worthy and available from other clubs and negotiate for the Senators. He would have authority to sign papers, but any deal would require the approval of Griffith and whoever is manager. He wouldn't have the power of a general manager.

Dulles Says Atoms-For-Peace Plan May Aid International Nuclear Controls

WASHINGTON, May 10 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the proposed international agency for peaceful uses of atomic energy can be a stepping stone toward control of nuclear weapons, he said.

Dulles testified at the opening of Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearings on the membership treaty submitted by President Eisenhower on March 22.

“The Agency can help in moving toward control of nuclear weapons,” he said.

“The Agency can help in moving toward control of nuclear weapons,” he said.

“The Agency can help in moving toward control of nuclear weapons,” he said.

Eisenhower said the agency, an outgrowth of his speech to the United Nations in December, 1953, is the answer to the desire of man, nations for a body which all may safely pool their knowledge and skill for the advancement of all.

A number of senators in both parties have expressed misgivings about the agency. Ratification of the charter requires a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Dulles, under questioning by Sen. Sparkman (D-Ma.), said failure of this country to join would have “disastrous effects on the prestige and influence of the United States in the world.”

“The whole effort would collapse,” he said.

The secretary testified the charter agreement worked out by 80 nations last October contains “an effective system of safeguards to insure the development of atomic energy with security.”

He said such an agency offers the best hope yet for cooperation with Russia to “reduce international tensions.”

Russia already has ratified the treaty, along with Byelorussia, Austria, Guatemala, Romania, Switzerland, and Pakistan.

Dulles underwent critical questioning by two Republican committee members, Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP Senate leader, and Hickenlooper of Iowa.

Both Knowland and Hickenlooper got a special White House briefing on the treaty last Friday but they came away saying they believed it may be necessary to attach some reservations or interpretations to the document.

At today's hearing Knowland raised the point that the United States proposes to contribute 5,000 kilograms of fissionable materials to the agency against a Russian contribution of 50 and a British contribution of 20 kilograms. A kilogram is a little over two pounds.

Hickenlooper said the two million dollars it would cost this country to support the agency in its first year of operation was small in comparison with the 80 million dollars in fissionable materials it would contribute.

Dulles emphasized the treaty does not contemplate a “give-away” agency. He said countries receiving atomic fuel would pay the agency for what they received and the United States would be reimbursed.

HD Council Send Delegates To State Meet

WINNSBORO. — Representing Franklin Parish at the annual meeting of the Louisiana State Home Demonstration May 6-7 were Mrs. Julian Stephens and Mrs. Arley Morgan of the Bates Home Demonstration Club. They were accompanied by their home agent, Mrs. Alice Teddlie. The meetings were in Pleasant Hall on the Louisiana State University campus at Baton Rouge.

They report that the theme of the meeting was: "Great Is Thy Faithfulness — A Continued Challenge." Delegations from each of the 64 parishes were there. The council is the governing body of Louisiana's statewide Home Demonstration Club organization.

Mrs. Rolan Stoker of Sabine Parish is State Home Demonstration Council president.

Registration was in the lobby of Pleasant Hall from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday May 6. The first general session opened at 1:15 p.m., with Mrs. Stoker presiding. Speakers included Dr. Milton Harrison, assistant to the president of Louisiana State University, who welcomed the delegates to the campus, and H. C. Sanders, director of the Louisiana State University Agricultural Extension Service.

A business meeting was held from 3 to 4 p.m. Monday, followed by committee meetings and a night session opening at 7 p.m. This program included "A European Tour."

Tuesday events were climaxed with an inspirational message from Mrs. Ellen LeNoir, state Home Demonstration Agent for the LSU Agricultural Extension Service. Memorial services, committee reports, the nomination and installation of officers, and a noon meeting of the executive committee of the council were other items of interest.

YOUR PROBLEMS

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann: I was both a divorcee and a widow by the time I was 20. Then, for three years I lived with a man whose wife "didn't understand him." By that time, I couldn't understand him either, so I broke up the arrangement. This isn't a very impressive record but I'm trying to be honest with you so I can get some straight advice.

For the past ten years I've been living in the shadows with a man who means the world to me. He started out as my boss, and now he pays the rent, buys me clothes, washes the dishes and is the only thing I live for. He has a nervous wife and three children. He can give me everything except the respectability of marriage.

Where will all this leave me in another 10 years? I long to have a home and family of my own. But how can I give up everything I have and start again with nothing at 34 years of age? Please tell me. — Nora

What do you have? Please tell me! Another woman's husband and a father to her three children?

Millions of girls pay their own rent, buy their own clothes and dry their own dishes. You can, too. Ten more years or running around with a married man will not make you more grey hair, added frustration and a membership to the Old-Too-Soon, Smart-Too-Late-Club.

Tell your gentleman friend goodbye and wish him luck. If he has your best interest at heart, and isn't totally selfish, he'll wish you the same.

Dear Ann: This letter is being written by ten men. We have a club composed of unmarried men and women between the ages of 22 and 32. There are 10 women, of course. We are all dying to get married, honestly, Ann, but this is our beef.

The girls are lovely, well-educated, bright and stimulating company — but, they are the loudest dressers we've ever seen. A fellow wants his date to look like

WHY GROW OLD
Weight Gain,
Exercise Helps

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

We often hear women say, "Why would I need to take exercises? I get plenty of it doing my housework!" It is true that the woman in the home is on her feet a lot of the time and that she does get more exercise than the woman who sits at a desk most of the day.

Nevertheless, the exercise which is truly valuable whips up the circulation and uses the large muscle groups as they are employed in special exercises. Many women who seem busy actually lead rather sedentary lives when looked at from this viewpoint.

They may spend much time sewing, at club meetings, committee meetings, church meetings, school meetings, luncheons, bridge and the theater. They do not get maintained physical exercise at any period during a busy day. Their exercise consists of dashing in between sitting-downs.

Exercise Plan

I know that time is at a premium but why not count an exercise plan in on your daily time budget? If you will do this I feel sure you will find that many of your defects in complexion and figure will disappear. You also will notice a big uptake in energy and a loss of tension.

Timber Losses Greater From Insects, Disease Than Fires

HODGE (Special)—Insect and disease annually cause approximately 700,000 cubic feet of timber loss in Louisiana, according to a report by the Louisiana Forest Industries Committee, said a two-pronged attack on the forests by insects and diseases is doing about nine times the damage caused annually by forest fires.

A new forestry publication, "Our Growing Wood Supply," released by American Forest Products Industries, Inc., Washington, D.C., tells these and other facts about a renewable forest resource, "said Sentell. "Still, we are growing more wood each year than we are cutting."

Sentell's committee represents AFPI, the national Tree Farm sponsor, in Louisiana. "Fires, large or small, are spectacular and they overshadow insect and disease damage," the industry said. "Fire takes a huge toll of wood, but the other combination takes a far bigger toll than most people realize."

The Hodge forester, whose own staff of foresters is always on the alert for such damage, said facilities for combatting this menace are far better than they were even 10 years ago.

"There are more foresters at work in the nation's forests to recognize and report infestations immediately," he said. "There are more effective poisons and better facilities for combatting the attacks. Better forest harvest methods allow quicker salvage and removal of infested timber from areas where healthy trees remain."

Sentell said insect damage was worst in the West in old timber stands, and fire damage was worst in the South.

"But we are losing dollars here to both fire and insect damage," he added, "and we can't slow up one bit in the fight against them."

Scout Activities For May Planned

FERRIDAY, (Special) — Sam D. Cole, Jr., newly appointed Cubmaster of Cub Pack 17 in Ferriday met with his assistants Ted Melvin and Louis Snyder, along with Den Mothers Mrs. R. T. Bonnette, Mrs. Dewey Clark, and Mrs. Leon Reid, to make plans for the pack for the coming months activities.

Cole selected Home Improvement as the theme for the month of May, with the Den Mothers stressing at the den meetings that the Cubs will be responsible for keeping their yards and homes neat and clean.

Assistant Cubmasters Melvin and Snyder are planning to prepare an honor board for the pack and placing it in a business place in town giving special recognition to the den that has the largest percent of parents and Cubs present at the pack meetings.

Melvin was selected as publicity chairman for the pack for the new Scout year. The pack meeting for June was scheduled to be held on June 15, at 6:00 p.m. at the Ridgecrest Recreation Park, and the meeting will be in the form of a weiner roast. Cole set the planning meeting to make the plans for the July Pack meeting for June 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the Ferriday Elementary School cafeteria.

'Tranquilizer' For Telescopes In Use

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 10 (AP)—A "tranquilizer" for telescopes is getting clearer pictures of the neighbor planets, and may solve the mystery of Mars' so-called canals.

It's a TV device that stops the nervous jumping-about of a planet when viewed through a telescope. The earth's shimmering blanket of air causes this whirling dervish effect.

The television device steadies or tranquilizes the dancing image picked up by a telescope. Snapshot or time-exposure photographs of the TV screen then can be taken to see better how the planet really looks.

This promising new technique was described today by the American Astronomical Society by John H. DeWitt, Robert H. Hardie and Dr. Carl K. Seyfert of the Dyer Observatory, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.

The image seen by the telescope is picked up by a TV tube. An ingenious electronic arrangement corrects the image centered and steadied, correcting for nervous shimmering when light rays from the planet pass through the earth's air.

The device was not ready when Mars made a very close visit last summer. Astronomers hoped then to solve the puzzle of its faint lines sometimes seen visually by telescope. The lines gave rise to

Predict Congress To Make Little Dent In Ike's Budget

HOT SPRINGS, Va., May 10 (AP)—Top rank industry executives predicted today that Congress will make little dent in President Eisenhower's spending budget but will offer some tax relief nevertheless.

Speaking privately to reporters, individual members of the Commerce Department's Business Advisory Council forecast that Congress will find the public's reaction to the high cost of government "irresistible."

The tax relief may be very slight, some said. It probably will not take effect until Jan. 1, 1958, they suggested, or might even be nothing more than a pronouncement that tax reduction will be the first order of business in the 1958 session.

Some believe that individual income tax payers will be the sole beneficiaries; one predicted that the corporation rate will not be reduced from the wartime 52 percent level "either this year or next."

About 100 BAC members, including chiefs of scores of the country's biggest corporations, are meeting in closed sessions with Secretary of Commerce Weeks, Secretary of the Treasury

Rites Pending For Victim Of Auto Accident

RUSTON, (Special) — James Alton Shirley, 24, of Winnsboro, died early yesterday morning after a highway crash in which his auto tore a thousand-pound chunk of concrete loose from a four-foot high reinforced concrete bridge railing 10 miles east of Ruston.

The wreckage of Shirley's car was discovered by three Negroes, who spotted the late model auto on the edge of a borrow pit near Tremont Creek, at 5:50 a.m. Friday.

After trying in vain to halt several passing motorists for aid in getting Shirley's body from the vehicle, they drove to Choudrant and phoned Kilpatrick's Funeral Home in Ruston.

Ambulance drivers Jerry Farrar, Bill Martin, the Negroes and a passing tourist from Alaska worked for three quarters of an hour to extract the man's body, which was pinned under the car. Lincoln parish Coroner J. J. Bennett attributed death in part to a fractured skull, two severe lacerations of the left leg, and a fracture of the forehead. He scheduled an autopsy.

Martin theorized that Shirley was heading east on Highway 80 when he struck the bridge. The time of the accident was not known.

A construction crane was necessary to remove the car.

Shirley was seen on Thursday by Roy Montgomery, secretary of the Franklin Parish Auction Company, when the young man stopped by for a paycheck after working 26 consecutive hours on Tuesday. He has been employed by several auction barns in Louisiana and Mississippi.

Funeral arrangements last night were incomplete but will be under the direction of Young's Funeral Home in Winnsboro, where the body will be kept until time of services.

Shirley is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Shirley of Route 3, Winnsboro; three brothers, Otis Shirley, Hollis Shirley, both of Winnsboro, and Ray Shirley of Ft. Carson, Colorado; one sister, Miss Modene Shirley of Winnsboro; his grandfather, Sam Baun of Winnsboro; his grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Weems of Delhi; several aunts and uncles.

Meetings Set To Plan For Scouts' Trip

Plans for sending the Ouachita Valley Council delegation to the National Jamboree at Valley Forge this summer were described as "developing" fast yesterday as two meetings have been called for this month.

Jamboree Scout leaders will meet at the Scout office on Louisville avenue Wednesday, May 15th, at 7:30 p.m. and a Parent orientation day will be held at Camp Ki-Ro-Li May 26th at 2:30 p.m.

"From the way plans are shaping up now, it looks as if we'll send one of the best organized units at the Jamboree," Jack E. Pankey, Scout Executive, said yesterday.

He pointed out that the parent orientation day, which will bring together Scouts, parents and leaders, would be a "primary step" in getting the trip off on a well-organized basis.

Approximately 50 Scouts have signed up to make the trip and at least five alternates have been submitted. The alternates are Lonnie Batton, Lake Providence, Dale Smith, West Monroe, William Arnett, Bastrop, and Manning Kolb and Bud Bonner, both of Delhi.

Pankey will serve as contingent administrator on the trip and J. W. Walters of Monroe will act as tour director.

Tom H. Armitage of Bastrop will serve as Scoutmaster of Troop 29 with Roy Ezell of Monroe as his assistant. A. L. "Tony" Embana-to of Monroe will be Scoutmaster of Troop 25 with Walters serving as the assistant.

Housekeeping Center's Open House Today

The Good Housekeeping Center and Sav-Mor Food Plan division will hold open house today at their new location, 600 North Fourth street. The open house will be from 1 to 6 p.m.

William C. (Bill) Sims and Robert Gayle, co-owners and operators of the establishment, have announced that they will give away a portable television set the following week, May 18, to one of the persons visiting the business tomorrow afternoon or during the following week. The person does not have to be present to win.

The Good Housekeeping Center opened in Monroe on March 1 of last year and later brought the Sav-Mor Food Plan to Monroe. The Sav-Mor Food Plan gives the members a service through sav-

Seek Aid In Spotting Moonshiners

WASHINGTON, May 10 (Special)—The help of Louisiana sugar refiners and wholesale dealers is being sought by Uncle Sam in a new drive against the illicit liquor business.

The drive entails tracking down illegal distilleries through their sources of sugar supply. Sugar is essential in the manufacture of moonshine whiskey.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington announced the new plan

Murder Charges Filed Against Bastrop Woman

BASTROP, (Special) — Formal charges of manslaughter were on file yesterday against Milus Sylvester, 36-year-old Negro woman, in the fatal shooting Monday night of a Negro cab operator. Bond was set at $2,500.

Joe Rolfe White, assistant district attorney, said the woman bullet struck Watkins in the head, was accused of shooting Aubrey Watkins instantly.
